

PEHL NDE ERLACTILYI!

If You
Can't Read
This...

...then you've just come one step closer to the problem. Every day in the eyes of one in five children, adults, and immigrants, images and words look just like that: incomprehensible. It's called illiteracy and it plagues over 800 million people worldwide. These 800 million are relying on YOU to help lower the statistics.

All it takes is a little bit of your time and a little heart to create meaning in the eyes of the illiterate around you.

Help someone learn to read by rearranging the way things are seen. Rearrange the letters in the sentence above and you'll see that it reads...

HELP END ILLITERACY!

Now that you can read it...it means a lot more.
